

EASTERN CAPE HISTORICAL ORGANISATIONS

ECHO DAY

SATURDAY 11TH MAY 2019

HOSTED BY THE
BORDER HISTORICAL SOCIETY
AT THE
EAST LONDON MUSEUM

A Celebration of 60 years

with our

EASTERN CAPE HISTORICAL SOCIETIES

of

Port Elizabeth and Grahamstown.

All are welcome to this sharing of our heritage and history.

A time to 'catch up' and celebrate with friends made over the years.

Come and join us!

ECHO Day Programme

Saturday 11 May 2019

- 9:00 to 9:30           Arrival, Registration and refreshments
- 9:30 to 10:00       Welcome by Border Historical Society Chairman William Martinson and an overview of BHS over the last 60 years.
- 10:15 to 11:00      Illustrated Presentation on the 80th Anniversary of the discovery of the Coelacanth - by Kevin Cole scientist at the East London Museum
- 11.00 to 11.30      Grahamstown Historical Society presentation
- 11:30 to 12:00      Port Elizabeth Historical Society presentation
- 12:00 to 13:00      Lunch Bring own picnic lunch basket. Tea and coffee will be provided.*
- 13:00 to 13:30      Lower Albany Historical Society presentation
- 13:30 to 14:00      Stutterheim Historical Society presentation
- 14:00 to 14:15      Thanks and Closure
- 14:15                Refreshments Tea and coffee will be served before departure.

No charge and all are welcome to attend

RSVP

Please confirm the names and surnames of those who would like to attend ECHO Day.

Please respond to Gordon Campbell, the Secretary of Border Historical Society, by 04 May 2019:

e-mail: gordonshirley@telkomsa.net or cell phone: 083 284 6173

SALE OF HISTORICAL SOCIETY PUBLICATIONS

Back copies of journals and publications from the various Historical societies will be available for sale on the day. Pin boards will also be available for each society to showcase their history.