

Ângela Ferreira, Remining (detail: photographic component from the JAG archive, excavation for new extension c.1986), (2017).

South Facing is Ângela Ferreira's first solo exhibition at a public institution in South Africa. The exhibition includes recent and previously unseen work as well as a newly commissioned work in response to the Gallery's Meyer Pienaar extension.

Exhibition: 7 May 2017 – 30 July 2017

Opening + performance: 7 May 2017 at 16:00, Johannesburg Art Gallery

Opening speaker: António Tomás

Johannesburg Art Gallery (JAG)
Corner Klein and King George Streets
Joubert Park, Johannesburg, South Africa

Hours: Tuesday to Sunday 10am – 5pm friend@friendsofjag.org

www.friendsofjag.org

Curated by Amy Watson

For further information please contact:

Tara Weber | Taraw@joburg.org.za

This project was made possible by the generous support of the Ministério da Cultura / Direção-Geral das Artes, University of the Witwatersrand / Wits City Institute, Camões - Instituto da Cooperação e da Língua, Camões - Centro Cultural Português (Maputo), Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian, Embassy of Portugal in South Africa, City of Joburg, Friends of JAG and the Emile Stipp Collection.

For exhibition information please contact Colin Groenewald at ColinG@joburg.org.za
T: +27 (0)11 725 3130/80 | F: +27 (0)11 720 6000 | Also find us on Twitter and Facebook
King George St, between Wolmarans & Noord St, Joubert Park, Johannesburg
Secure parking is available